ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All praises be to Allah SWT, the real researcher’s guide, who amazingly and mysteriously guides her in the process of making this paper. Place and solution are upon the greatest Prophet Muhammad SAW who set us to right way.

A big number of people contributed in this thesis, and I would like to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to them all. Particularly, I would like to express my gratitude to Bayu H. Wicaksono, M.Ed., Ph.D as the first advisor, whose expertise, understanding, and patience, added considerably to my experience. I appreciate his vast knowledge and skill in many areas and the support in every step.

My deepest gratitude is also addressed to Rina W. Setyaningrum, M.Ed as the second advisor who always patient in correcting the sentences and the grammar. I should not forget for the advice, suggestion and time, with the comments and encouragements, the content of this thesis have improved.

My gratitude is also extended to all my lectures of English Department of University of Muhammadiyah Malang and all the staff office that has transferred much knowledge to me, for guidance, instruction and help during my study in this university.

My great gratitude is devoted to my beloved parents, Ikwan and Endang Susilowati, and also my brothers, Arya and Dicky who always gives me prayer, support, attention, guidance and encouragement suggestion and motivation.

Least but not less, to all my lovely friends Shelfi, Nova, Fifi and Ika, especially to the B Class of English’11. Thank you very much for all greater moments, tease, smile, support, sadness, happiness, and everything that you have done to me. You all are my best friends.

The researcher really hopes that this study will give contributions to the educational world, especially for the English development of knowledge in the future. The researcher also hopes that this study can be able to encourage the reader to conduct future studies about learning English. Finally the researcher hopes correction, suggestion and critics from the reader.
