CHAPTER V
CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

This chapter presents the conclusions and suggestions related to the research findings and discussion which answered the research problems; what the type of expressive speech act used by John Keating in Dead Poets Society movie is and what the dominant type of expressive speech act used by John Keating in Dead Poets Society movie is.

5.1 Conclusions

Expressive speech act is a speech act which aims to express the speaker’s feeling toward something. It is related to psychological state. Based on the research findings, there are five types of expressive speech act used by John Keating as the main character in Dead Poets Society movie. They are expressive for attitude, thanking, congratulating, greeting, and apologizing. In accordance with the result of this research, the dominant type of expressive speech act used by John Keating in Dead Poets Society movie is expressive for attitude. John Keating in Dead Poets Society movie often used expressive for attitude because he often criticized his students and also a traditional method.

5.2 Suggestions

This part of the research presents some suggestion given for students, lecturer, and further researcher. The explanations are as follows:
a. For the students

The result of this research is hoped that it can be fruitful for the students to get additional information and understanding about speech act, especially expressive speech act.

b. For the lecturer

The result of this research is expected that it can be additional material for teaching linguistic and sociolinguistic subject, especially material of expressive speech act. It is also hoped it can help them to provide various example of expressive speech act.

c. For the further researcher

It is hoped that this result of this research can be referable for further researcher to analyze about expressive speech act or another speech act more specifically. They may be able to analyze with the different object such as novel, short story, magazine, etc.