ABSTRACT

Nurul Aisyah, 2024, 202010360311286, University of Muhammadiyah Malang, Faculty of Social and Political Science, International Relation Study Program, Program Studi Hubungan Internasional, Dampak Abraham Accord antara Israel dan Uni Emirat Arab (UEA) dalam Bidang Penerbangan dan Pariwisata, Dosen Pembimbing: Prof. Gonda Yumitro, SIP., MA., Ph.D.

This study aims to determine the impact of the Abraham Accord between Israel and the United Arab Emirates (UAE) in the fields of aviation and tourism. This research employs a qualitative descriptive method and the library research technique, gathering data through books, reports, journals, e-books, working papers, articles, and online news related to the research problem. This study also uses the Theory of National Interest as an analytical tool. The research is motivated by the normalization of diplomatic relations between Israel and the United Arab Emirates (UAE), which significantly opens up cooperation opportunities in aviation and tourism, having substantial potential for the economic development of both countries. The findings of this study indicate that the normalization of diplomatic relations through the Abraham Accord agreement between Israel and the United Arab Emirates (UAE) has an impact on Israel's economy. The impact of aviation and tourism cooperation between Israel and the United Arab Emirates (UAE) on the Abraham Accord includes advancing Israel's economy by increasing revenue through market access, investment, technological innovation, aviation, and tourism. The cooperation in tourism encompasses partnerships in museums, archives, and national libraries, tourism campaigns, and cargo aircraft conversion.
